

JENNY DON'T AND THE SPURS FIRE ON THE RIDGE

With 11 tracks clocking in at under 33 minutes, there isn't a wasted second on the third full-length release from Portland's Honky Tonk/Rockabilly/Punk anti-heroes, Jenny Don't And The Spurs, as the band switches from blistering barn-burners ("Train Ticket", "Be The Only One") to rambling westerns ("Fire On The Ridge") to honest Patsy Cline style ballads ("Friday Night").

The Spurs were founded back in 2012 by Jenny Don't and bassist, Kelly Halliburton (garage rock trio PIERCED ARROWS and punk-rock destroyers P.R.O.B.L.E.M.S.). It was only a few weeks later that Kelly's bandmates Fred and Toody Cole (DEAD MOON) got wind of the developing musical project and decided to call their bluff by giving them an unsolicited support slot. Not having anticipated such a high-profile live appearance as a first live outing, they decided to ask Sam Henry (THE WIPERS, THE RATS and NAPALM BEACH) to join them on drums. The band was finally rounded out a few years later when guitar ace/gunslinger Christopher March became a member of the family in early 2017.

Fire On The Ridge was pieced together in fits and starts over 2 years, as it seemed that one event after another conspired to derail the process. Initial tracking in 2019 was interrupted when Jenny required vocal cord surgery, followed by a hard-drive crash, a studio flood, and then the Pandemic.

At long last, Fire on the Ridge will be released on June 11, 2021, via Fluff and Gravy Records on Vinyl, CD and Digitally.

Release Date: June 11, 2021
